Our technical SEO audit service in Canada helps businesses uncover hidden website issues that impact search rankings and user experience. We analyze core SEO factors such as crawlability, indexation, duplicate content, and technical site structure. Our audits also assess broken links, page speed, schema markup, and security vulnerabilities. By identifying areas for improvement, we provide strategic recommendations to enhance search visibility and site efficiency. Whether you're launching a new website or optimizing an existing one, our SEO audits help maximize your digital presence and growth potential.
